

Recruitment process

Who are we looking for?

We invite final year law students wishing to specialise in the dynamic and expanding area of taxation law to apply for graduate employment with Greenwoods & Freehills in Sydney or Melbourne.

How do I apply?

Your application should ideally be received by 15 April in the year of application and include:

- A CV, including details of your work experience and extra curricular activities such as sporting activities, music, volunteer work, club memberships and other interests. We value an ability to successfully combine other activities with your studies as well as an interest in commerce and what drives a business, and
- a photocopy of your most recent university academic transcript.

We prefer if you email your application to both tim.kyle@gf.com.au and tina.lee@gf.com.au, but will also accept applications by post as follows:

Sydney
