

Vacation Clerkships in Sydney

We invite 2–3 commerce/law students who are in their penultimate year of studies to participate in our annual vacation clerk program. Our clerkship program in Sydney runs for 10 weeks but we can also offer more flexible options. Please contact us if you would like to discuss these.

Most of our graduate positions are filled through our clerkship program and we do not currently have an additional graduate recruitment program planned.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for students who:

- wish to specialise in the dynamic and expanding area of taxation law
- are interested in commerce and what drives a business
- demonstrate an ability to successfully combine other activities with legal studies.

How do I apply?

Your application should include:

- a CV, including details of your work experience and extra curricular activities such as sporting activities, music, volunteer work, club memberships and other interests, and
- a copy of your most recent academic transcript.

Please email your application to ainslie.robinson@gf.com.au

Key dates

- Thursday 23 June 2011 - applications open.
- Friday 22 July 2011 - applications close at 5.00pm AEST.
- Monday 22 August 2011 - interviews commence.
- Friday 20 September 2011 - offers made.
